

BANKS LANE BLOG

Wednesday 10th June 2020.

Birthdays:

Evie 35 - 10th June. Have a great day Evie!

Did you know?

Today is also The Queen's husband, Prince Philip's, 99th birthday! He even has his very own quiz to celebrate, see how well you know the Prince. Prince Philip's birthday quiz

Riddle time.

Can you use your problem-solving skills to work out the answers to the following riddles?

Q: What is easy to get into, but hard to get out of?

Q: What has hands but can't clap?

Q: What can be as big as an elephant, but weighs nothing?

Remember to always speak to an adult or someone you trust if there is something worrying you on the internet!

Celebrity supply teacher.

Have you ever wondered what it would be like to have a celebrity for a teacher? BBC iPlayer have teamed up with celebrities to bring you a bitesize lesson every day. Today's PE lesson was delivered by Manchester United footballer, Marcus Rashford. Follow the link to see which celebrity could be teaching you each day!

BBC iPlayer - Celebrity Supply Teacher.

LEARNING POWERS!

Internet safety.

Currently most of us are spending lots more time on the internet which is proving to be a great resource to support our learning! However, staying safe on the internet is very important. Ask your grown up at home to have a read through this link which offers lots of support and advice on internet safety!

Think you know internet safety.

Fort challenge.

Ikea has created instructions on how to build your very own fort at home, using household objects. The Swedish furniture company has instructions for 6 fantastic forts follow this link:

Ikea fort instructions, to see how you can make your very own. Perhaps you could use your fort to complete one of the Open University reading challenges.

Mrs Daniels is going to attempt to build one of the forts at home, keep checking the blog to see the end result! Remember to send us pictures of your creations!

