

BANKS LANE BLOG

12th May

Did you know, last week, Sir David Attenborough turned 93? Check out some fascinating facts about David Attenborough by clicking on the link below:

<https://www.natgeokids.com/uk/discover/science/nature/david-attenborough-facts/>

You may have heard that the government want all children back in school before summer. We can't wait to see you! There are lots of things to work out before that happens though and lots 'conditions' that have to be met. We all need to keep being patient, resilient and follow social distancing rules.

Home Learning

How to improve your football skills at home...

Check out this link for some handy tips to make sure you're in top shape when game time comes around again!

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/52579238>

Look at what Mr Bassett found in the loft!

This is a reprint of the original Times broadsheet newspaper from 8th May 1945. My grandad was invited to represent the scouts at the celebration in London. He was there at 7am with front row seats! He watched parades from military personnel from all over the world.

Guess Who!

Who was it? Of course it was Mr Wilkinson! So today's clues...

1. Is a Manchester United fan
2. Has a puppy
3. Always smiling

LEARNING POWERS!

Hi Year 6! Now seems like a good time to reflect! No more practice papers - yet you might still feel disappointed! Can you figure out why? Why not talk to your parents about it?

Joke of the Day

I saw a documentary on how ships are kept together. Riveting!

Now one of my favourites:

Jokes about white sugar are rare. Jokes about brown sugar, Demerara.

Keeping in touch with your friends online...

During the lockdown, online communication is booming. Social media, email and video conferencing are (temporarily) taking the place of face to face communication - but how can you make sure you enjoy it while staying safe? Have a look at the link below for some tips.

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/52329936>

