

BANKS LANE BLOG

15th May

From all of us at Banks Lane, we hope you have a fantastic weekend!
Happy birthday to Amy in 6S for yesterday! Also, happy birthday to Tallulah & Jacob in 4L for tomorrow and Harley in 6B for Sunday. Have a great day all of you!

What's it like going back to school?

While we're just beginning to think about schools reopening, schools in Denmark have been open for a month. Why not find out what life has been like for them going back? Click on the link below to find out more.

Joke of the Day

Here's one of my favourites I used to use when I had a class:

Pupil: Mr Bassett, my pen's run out!

Mr Bassett: Don't just stand there! Run after it!

They thought it was hilarious (not really).

Day Out With The Kids...

Indoors!

Running out of fun ideas to do at home? Don't worry, Day Out With the Kids have 100 things to do! Normally, this website gives parents ideas about what to do and where to go. They have now changed their list of suggestions for things to do at home. There are loads of fun things to try. Just click on the link below:

You are now allowed to visit your local park and play a game with your family as your exercise. Just remember to stay safely socially distanced from anyone outside your household. Have fun!

Riddle Time!

See if your parents can figure out any of these fun riddles!

Imagine you are in a sinking boat surrounded by sharks. How would you survive?

Answer: Stop imagining

You are in a dark room with a candle, a wood stove and a gas lamp. You only have one match, so what do you light first?

Answer: The match!

What can be broken, but is never held?

Answer: A promise

It goes all over the world, but always stays in a corner. What is that?

Answer: A Stamp

What has a head, a tail, but does not have a body?

Answer: A coin

What is always coming, but never arrives?

Answer: Tomorrow

If a plane crashes on the border between the US and Canada, where do they bury the survivors?

Answer: Survivors are not buried
