1st May

In case you didn't see it yesterday, we've put the link to the special video from the staff back on. Check out the link in the box to your right. Oh, and look out for Mr Milner getting his daily exercise in his rainbow wig!

No birthday's today, but have you ever wondered who you share your birthday with? That is surely worth a Google! I share mine with Princess Deokhye of Korea, last princess of the Korean Empire born in 1912. Any detectives out there might be able to find out my birthday!

Guess Who?

Did you guess yesterday's? It was Mrs Senegoles! Here are today's clues:

1. Supports Liverpool FC
2. Has lived in Australia
3. Joined Banks Lane this academic year

There are a few people it could be!

Guest Writers!

We hope you've been enjoying our daily blog? We wondered if you wanted to have a go at writing your very own. You can click on the link below for a PDF version and an editable version in MS Word. Think about what articles you might want to include. Some of the ones we've enjoyed include guess the teacher, wise thoughts, daily jokes, thought from a Learning Power, activities, word search, interesting stories in the news ... and many more!

Use your imagination and creativity - who knows, we might even publish your blog!

Buttons!

Miss Selby is helping 'Supporting Staff at NHS Stepping Hill Hospital' - they desperately need buttons 1.5cm - 2cm to continue making much needed mask extenders. If you have any buttons that size, please email shh.staffassist@outlook.com and they will arrange a safe collection.

Well Done Evie!

Evie has been doing lots at home, including making posters for our NHS workers and making this delicious cake! I think I'll have a virtual taste!
