

BANKS LANE BLOG

Thursday 18th June

Happy Birthday Brooke in 4B. We hope you have a wonderful day!

The answer to you yesterday's riddle was a lion! Did you get it correct?

Animal riddle

I'm an animal you might love
But I'm too big to be your pet

I have an extremely long trunk

And it's said I never forget

Challenge:

Have a go at making your own riddle for an animal. Challenge yourself to see if you can make it rhyme. Send it to your year group email and we can post it on the blog for all of Banks Lane to guess the answer!

More planting!!

Lucia in 5B has made a fairy garden with Strawberry, Tomato & Lavender plants. Over the weekend, they tasted their first home grown strawberries.... they were yummy!

The Duchess of Cambridge's assembly

The Duchess of Cambridge is hosting an assembly today about mental well-being at 11am on the National Oak Academy website. If you missed the assembly there is an article on Newsround all about it.

She spoke about the importance of being kind to both others and yourself during these strange and tricky times.

How could you show kindness today? Could you do the dishes after tea? Tidy your bedroom, draw someone a picture or write a poem!
