The Weekly Roar!

Friday 16th September 2022

370th Edition

Monday 19th September is a bank holiday so school will be closed and will reopen on Tuesday. This will allow children to pay their respects to the late sovereign Queen Elizabeth II with yourselves as families.

FAMILY GAMES NIGHT

You are invited to our Family Games Night on Wednesday 28th September from 5 - 7pm.

Entry is £1 per person (free entry for under 4's).

Our games night has always been a social highlight of the year and is an opportunity for you and your children to come and have some fun with staff on our field. Everyone welcome - grandparents, aunties, uncles, the more the merrier.

All activities are free!

We will have glitter tattoos, netball, parachute games, rounders, javelin, basketball and many more.

If the weather is wet we will hold a range of indoor activities - paper aeroplane races, bingo etc.

We will also have drinks and BBQ food on sale along with an Ice-cream van for the evening.

And of course, the highlight of the evening will be the staff against children tug of war - our staff team are very competitive!

CROSS COUNTRY

We are excited to take part once again in the Stockport School's Cross-Country League this year on Saturday mornings in Woodbank Park. If your child is interested in taking part, please have a read of the letter attached to last week's Roar and fill in the Google Form. You can also CLICK HERE to complete the form.

SCHOOL FLEECEES

School fleeces were introduced as an addition to our uniform during COVID when all classrooms windows needed to remain open no matter what the weather. Please note - fleeces are not to be worn inside school in replacement of jumpers/cardigans but can be worn as an extra layer if children are still cold. Hoodies are not permitted to be worn in class.

This week we have lent out 24 PE kits. Please ensure your child has their kit in school daily. Many thanks.
