The Weekly Roar!

Friday 6th March, 2020

280th Edition

WORLD BOOK DAY

We had an amazing day for World Book Day yesterday. The whole school took part in a special assembly. Mrs Harvey read a story for everyone to listen to. The winners and runners up of the 'decorate a potato' competition were revealed and prizes handed out.

Due to us having visitors in school, the 'book swap shop' will take place on Monday. The potatoes will be displayed in the hall after school on Monday if you would like to come in and take a look. Below are just two of our fantastic entries.

OFSTED

We would like to say thank you for your support whilst Ofsted have been in school this week. The children have been amazing ambassadors for BLJS. After an extremely busy few days we are all very tired but can say we have had a fair inspection. We are hoping to receive the report in the next 4 to 6 weeks. We will share this with you all once received.

CROSS COUNTRY

Tomorrow morning it is the final cross country event of this season. It would be great to have a fantastic Banks Lane turn out for these final races. Remember, if you have taken part in five or six of the races this season, you will receive a medal for your efforts in the coming weeks. Make sure you're eligible by turning up for this last event! Miss Rock will be there as usual, so please arrive in plenty of time to check in and warm up.

HOMEWORK CLUB

Please note - If your child attends homework club after school each Monday, from next week this will now be held on a Thursday instead.

SEND PARENT FORUM

Thank you to all those who attended our March Parent Forum, it was another good turn out and was full of rich discussion. Our focus was "communication" and we chatted about the things you want to know and how you want them to be passed on to you. Our next meeting is at 9.15 on Wednesday 1st April; look out for more details in upcoming ROAR newsletters.
