STOCKPORT BOOK AWARDS

On Tuesday evening, Miss Rock and seven pupils from Year 5 (chosen for their passion for reading and progress in reading this year) attended the Stockport Book Awards Presentation Evening at Stockport Town Hall. It was a fantastic event! We were lucky enough to see the poet Matt Goodfellow perform again and see many of the authors and illustrators of this year's nominated books. Several of our children received an award from the Mayor of Stockport. Caleb was our Reader of the Year, chosen for his exceptional progress and new love of reading. Ella and Lilith both won an art competition with work based on the books Utterly Dark and the Face of the Deep and Darwin's Dragons. They both received framed pictures of their art work and copies of the books. We were very proud of all the children's achievements and hope to take more children along to this amazing event in the future.

The winning books this year were:

- This is not a Unicorn by Barry Timms and Ged Adamson (Picture book)
- The Last Bear by Hannah Gold (Lower Key Stage 2)
- When the Sky Falls by Phil Earle (Upper Key Stage 2)

The children were so engrossed in the high-quality books this year that we have chosen The Last Bear, Utterly Dark and the Face of the Deep and When the Sky Falls to read next year in our reading lessons. Thank you to all the authors for their amazing creations. We cannot wait to take part in the book awards again in 2023.

Look out for more information about Stockport Libraries Summer Reading Challenge in the coming weeks!

TRANSITION DAY

It was great to hold a whole school transition day yesterday and to welcome Year 2 children to our school. It has also been lovely to hear from our Year 6's how their first taste of high school was.

Pupils spent time getting to know their new teachers and teaching assistants in their new classes ready for September.

SPANISH DAY

On Tuesday we are celebrating Spanish-speaking countries during our Spanish Day. In the afternoon, we will be on the field for a parade and Spanish games so please remember hats and sun cream. Children are welcome to come to school either dressed in red and/or yellow or Spanish themed clothes or their choice of non-uniform. Please do not buy anything new especially for this day. ¡Gracias!
