

BANKS LANE BLOG

Friday 12th June 2020.

Happy Friday everyone, we hope you all have a good weekend!

Birthdays:

George in 6L- Have a fantastic day George!

Did you know?

June is named after the Roman Goddess, Juno, the wife of Jupiter. She is goddess of marriage. Because of this, getting married in June was thought to be lucky.

Riddle time.

Ben in 3L has sent in a great mind-boggling riddle:

What gets wetter the more it dries?

Hmm... I'd better use my Cosmic Curiosity learning power to think this through. Do you think you can solve this riddle?

Reading challenge.

Ben in 3L has kept super busy reading this week and checked off one of the reading challenges already. He has written a fantastic summary and review of Roald Dahl's - Matilda.

Great effort Ben, keep up the amazing work!

The book I read is called Matilda and it's about Matilda going to a small school and eventually she finds out Miss Trunchbull the headmistress was Miss Honey, her teacher's Aunt, and Miss Honey became Miss Trunchbull's servant when she was ten years old. My favorite person in the book is Matilda because she could speak like an adult instead of a five year old. She could read news paper when she was one and a half years old and move things with her mind! The person I don't like is Miss Trunchbull because she was very mean and even threw a girl called Amanda Trigg over the fence playground fence! Thank you for the book. The one I think is best is the end. I think the funniest thing is when Miss Trunchbull is about to drink her drink but there's a nest in it and she thought it was a baby creature! Matilda found out Miss Trunchbull's first name (Aunt) and Miss Honey (Tony) and put down on the blackboard. Agatha, this is Magenta. This is Magnus. It is Magnus and you better believe it. Agatha, give my Tony back her house Give my Tony her money Give my Tony back her house Get out of here. If you don't do it, I will come and get you. I will come and get you like you got me I am watching you Agatha. A few days later Miss Trunchbull fainted and Miss Honey got her house back and Matilda went from bottom to top form but her family was going to Spain but forever but Matilda stayed with Miss Honey.

Sock challenge!

Did you try yesterday's sock ladder challenge? How did you do?

Why not have a go at today's sock, throw, roll challenge (just remember to use clean socks!!).
