13th May

As you know, the government has made a plan to get children back in school. We are really looking forward to seeing you, but there are lots of questions that we don't have the answers to just yet. We are waiting for further information from the government but nothing is likely to change now before half term, so keep going - you're doing great!

There is lots of uncertainty in the coming weeks and lots of conditions that have to be met before schools can reopen. When schools do reopen, they will probably look quite different. Look at the 'Social story' and 'My lockdown experience' documents which can help you cope with uncertainty. We hope they help.

Social Story

The link below will take you to a helpful social story which will help you make sense of what is going on - it is particularly useful if you need a little extra help when dealing with uncertainty.

My Lockdown Experience

Have a look at the link below. This will take you to a helpful resource which helps you to reflect on your lockdown experience so far.

Guess Who!

Yesterday's guess who was of course Mrs Williams!

Happy birthday Hope in 5L!
Have a great day Hope!

LEARNING POWERS!

Joke of the Day

Police Officer: "I'm arresting you for illegally downloading the entire Wikipedia".

Me: "Wait, I can explain everything!"

What do the changes in the lockdown rules mean for you?

BBC Newsround has put together 5 important things to know on the new lockdown rules. Click on the link below to find out more. It looks as though all year groups will have to start thinking about coming back to school. How do you feel about this? One thing is for sure, we're not 'back to normal' just yet.
